Come and learn about how we can give all students—including those with significant disabilities—access to the literate community. Dr. Kluth will explore how many learners have been excluded from literacy experiences that are inclusive, rich, and challenging. Participants will also learn some strategies for including and supporting students with disabilities in reading, writing, speaking, and listening activities. Ideas for enhancing skills in comprehension, fluency, and vocabulary will be highlighted.

Dr. Paula Kluth is a consultant, teacher, author, advocate, and independent scholar who works with teachers and families to provide inclusive opportunities for students with disabilities and to create more responsive and engaging schooling experiences for all learners. Paula is a former special educator who has served as a classroom teacher, consulting teacher, and inclusion facilitator. Her research and professional interests include differentiating instruction, and supporting students with autism and significant disabilities in inclusive classrooms.

She is the author or co-author of eight books including “You’re Going to Love This Kid”: Teaching Students with Autism in Inclusive Classrooms; Access to Academics: Critical Approaches to Inclusive Curriculum, Instruction, and Policy, A Land We can Share: Teaching Literacy to Students with Autism; Joyful Learning: Active and Collaborative Learning in the Inclusive Classroom; You’re Welcome: 30 Innovative Ideas for Inclusive Schools, and Just Give Him the Whale: 20 Ways to Support & Honor the Passions & Interests of Students with Autism. Paula is also the director of a new documentary film titled “We thought You’d Never Ask”: Voices of People with Autism.
