

On-Site Presentations Available Through STAR NET Region VI

The following is a list of in-services that STAR NET Region VI staff can present with no expense at your location! If you are interested, please call the office at 708.342.5370 for details. Topics listed below can be presented to staff or parents. We can design any topic to meet your needs. Many topics can also be presented as webinars. Presentations are 1 1/2-2 hours unless otherwise noted.

A minimum of 15 participants is required for a presentation, please allow 4 weeks advance notice for requests.

Adapting Activities and Materials for All Learners in Your Early Childhood Classroom

Add Pizzazz to Supporting Literacy Development in Your Early Childhood Classroom

An Introduction to ACES

Art: Process VS Product.

Autism 101

The Basics: IDEA and INCLUSION

Being Intentional in Your Creative Curriculum Classroom

Beyond Battles, Tantrums and Tears is Conscious Discipline

Book Nook: Using Books to Teach Social and Emotional Vocabulary

Building Bridges: Developing Parent and Professional Partnerships

Building Positive Relationships

Developmental Milestones

Differentiated Instruction

Early Childhood Classroom Makeovers: Roll up Your Sleeves, Move Some Furniture and Create a New Space!

Family Matters: Organizing and Managing the Business of the Family

Fostering Independence in Our Early Childhood Classrooms: Strategies You Can Begin to Implement

Grief: Providing Support During Difficult Times

High Quality Language Interactions

How Can I Support the Classroom Teacher With Documentation?

The Importance of Play in the Preschool Program

Improving Children's Self Esteem

Improving Transitions in Your Early Childhood Classroom: Just Let Kids Play

Learning Styles and Young Children

Let's Go Outside and Play: Creative Ideas to Help Give Your Outside Play a Jumpstart

Literacy in Your Preschool Classroom

Look at Me I Can Jump

Little Learners, Big Feelings Part 1: Stress and Trauma

Little Learners, Big Feelings Part 2: Afraid, Worried, Anxious

Loose Parts-Let Kids Explore and Learn

Making Your Centers More "Intentional"

Math in Your ECERS Classroom

Math Matters in Your Early Childhood Classroom: It is More Than Counting

My Shirt Tag is Bugging Me: How Understanding the Sensory System Can Affect Learning:

One Fish, Two Fish, Green Fish, Blue Fish: Cognitive Development of the Preschooler

Pack 'Em Up and Go!

Para-Pros: Promoting Preschooler Independence and Self-Esteem

Promoting Children's Success: Schedules and Routines

Promoting Social-Emotional Competence: Overview of the Pyramid Model

Related Services: Therapy Belongs in the Classroom Not the Broom Closet

Resilience in Young Children

Schedules, Routines and Responsibilities: Managing the Family Busy-ness

So this Is Normal Too? Developmental Issues in Young Children (call for a list of topics)

Speech and Language Development Of the 3-5 Year Old: I Want Pissehtetti

Speech and Language in the Classroom: I Can Play and Work on My Sounds at the Same Time!

STEAM in Your Early Childhood Classroom: Integrating Science and Math Learning Goals

Strengthening Parent and Teacher Partnerships

Supporting Children With Autism in Early Childhood

Supporting Preschool Transitions: Tips for the Paraprofessional

Too Loud, Too Bright and Please Don't Touch Me!

Understanding Early Childhood Special Education

Using Positive Language

Visual Supports: "I Can See It Now!" Helping Children Understand Their World:

"Wanna Be My Friend?"

Why Diversity Matters in Your Early Childhood Classroom

You Can Do It : Including All Children In Your Preschool
